San Francisco, March 9th, 1888.

Dear Sir:

You are respectfully invited to act as Vice-President at the Musical and Literary Entertainment in honor of St. Patrick's Day, Saturday evening, March 17th, at the Grand Opera House.

The occasion, so appropriately devoted to the cause of Charity, in aiding the Home for Indigent Boys, under the management of the Youths' Directory, appeals so strongly to the hearts of all good citizens, that we are sure you will feel pleasure in lending your name to an object so worthy, in celebrating the Feast dear to the hearts of all true Irishmen.

Please notify us of your acceptance.

Very respectfully yours,

James R. Kelly,
President.

M. F. Donleavy,
Secretary.
